

Employment Agency

At a local level, the 156 Employment Agencies are responsible for the fulfilment of the tasks of the Federal Employment Agency. With the restructuring of the Federal Labour Office to become the Federal Employment Agency, the former Employment Offices became Employment Agencies. Nine Employment Agencies are at the same time research liaison offices of the IAB with one project member from the institute, respectively.

Verwandte Artikel:

- Manager for download: Expectations versus reality
- "The labour market integration of refugees is working out much better than we expected." An interview with Herbert Brücker and Yuliya Kosyakova
- „We need legal migration to stabilise the Italian social security system“. An interview with Professor Tito Boeri
- Reforming the German basic income system in international perspective: yes to new avenues, no to a fundamental change
- Family-friendly organizational arrangements - anything but "a fuss" \(over nothing\)!